All Around Town.

Put by the old straw bonnet,
With the fly specks on it,
And please do not delay;
The frost is the reason
For cutting out the season
Till another summers' day.

The opinions of the people differ on some questions and frequently on most questions. Monday morning after Paris had defeated Richmond in the game the day before and Lexington had lost to Maysville, two Richmond ball players stopped in front of a score board on Main street on which was written the following:
"Paris 7, Richmond 0. Lexington, 0. Maysville 2. Paris wins the 1910 pennant."
"There goes Dr. Usery's old pennant," remarked the husky Pioneer to his companion. We might have known how this thing would turn out with him at the head of the League's affairs.
"That's so," agreed the other, "couldn't expect anything else." With this they sauntered on up the street.
Presently half a dozen Paris fans gathered around the same board. Everybody was happy over the success of the club and smiles adorned the faces of the sextette.
"We've got it at last," remarked one, "but it was a hard fight. We've won though in spite of everything that a President could do against us."

DEATHS.

—Mrs. Jennie S. Mosley, wife of Mr. George B. Mosley, died at her home in Versailles Tuesday night. Mrs. Mosley has been sick for some two weeks but her death came as an unexpected shock to the community. She is survived by her husband and three children. Mr. Mosley formerly resided in Paris where he was engaged in the real estate business.

—Mrs. Genevieve Cahal, aged 23 years, died yesterday morning about ten o'clock at the home of her husband, Mr. M. A. Cahal on Seventh street, after a protracted illness.
For almost a year Mrs. Cahal had been confined to her bed. The greater part of the time she had been under treatment at a Lexington hospital. Everything known to medical science was resorted to without result, and a few weeks ago she was brought to her home in this city.

Mrs. Cahal is survived by her husband and three little sons, Ray, Charles and Robert Cahal. She was a daughter of Mrs. Dan Roche, who also survives. The family has the deepest sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.
The funeral services will be held from the Catholic church Sunday morning at nine o'clock, conducted by Rev. Father Eugene DeBruyn. Burial in Paris cemetery. The pall-bearers will be: James Higgins, John McCarthy, Ed Rassenfoss, Frank Roche, R. S. Porter and D. S. Jordan.

BASE BALL.

TUESDAY.

Duplicating his performance against the Lexington club last season, Jack Scheneberg pitched a no-hit, no-run game against the Richmond Pioneers in this city Tuesday afternoon. The game was the fastest ever played on the local grounds requiring only one hour and thirteen minutes to complete the contest.

Not only did Scheneberg hold the slugging Pioneers without a single hit but nine of the men who faced him were retired on strikes. Only two men reached first and they were given berths by the two misplays by Scott at short. Only once did a man make an effort to get to second and that was in the seventh when Whittaker, making the first sack on Scott's fumble, attempted to pilfer the second station but was caught ten feet from the base.

The fast fielding of Maxwell in the eighth inning kept the Pioneers from one hit. Walden hit one just above Scheneberg's head, which was too high for the pitcher to reach. By a sensational run and quick, accurate throw, Maxwell retired the runner at first.

Creager, who twirled for the Pioneers was steady in his movements and fared badly in one inning only. Although the locals hit safely in five of the eight halves, only twice did he allow hits in a row and only once did it count for anything.

The pitching of Scheneberg was the most remarkable ever seen on the home grounds. In the first five sessions only three men in each inning followed two men reached first on errors and in the eighth and ninth they were retired in order.

The winning run was scored in the third. Kuhlman led off with a single over short and was advanced a base on Chapman's sacrifice. Kaiser followed with a stinging drive to left and Kuhlman was safe at the home plate on a close decision. Kaiser was thrown out on a close margin at third. Thoss to Olson, and Goodman fled to Thiford for the third. Score:

Batteries—Paris, Scheneberg and Holter; Richmond, Creager and Thoss. Hits—Paris 7. Errors—Paris 2. Earned runs—Paris 1. Sacrifices—Chapman, Kaiser. Struck out—by Creager 5; by Scheneberg 9. Left on bases—Richmond 1; Paris 5. First base on errors—Richmond 2. Time—1:13. Umpires—Reye and Bohannon.

WEDNESDAY.

Paris won a pretty and exciting game from Richmond Wednesday afternoon, which it took eleven innings to decide. Both Wills and Harold were batted hard, but hits off both were kept so scattered that they were hard to make count for runs.

In the eleventh Barnett led with a triple, but was thrown out at the plate on a fielder's choice, Maxwell being safe on the play. Williams, who had proven four easy outs prior, followed and drove the sphere over the right field fence for a homer, scoring Maxwell ahead of him. The batting of Barnett and Williams, the fielding of Maxwell, Baird, Barnett and Walden and the base running of Kaiser were the features. Score:

Batteries—Paris, Harold and Thau; Richmond, Wills and Thoss. Errors—Paris 3; Richmond 3. Hits—Paris 14; Richmond 9. Struck out—by Wills 8; by Harold 5. Bases on balls—off Harold 1. Stolen bases—Maloney, Baird. Sacrifices—hits—Chapman, Wills. Two-base hits—Barnett, Maxwell, Chapman. Three base hit—Barnett. Home run—Williams. Double plays—Scott, Kuhlman. Left on bases—Richmond 7; Paris 9. Earned runs—Paris 3. Time—1:55. Umpire—Bohannon.

THURSDAY.

Champs at Home for Last Games.

The Champs returned to Paris last night and will meet the Lawmakers at White Park this afternoon. Tomorrow the Colts are scheduled to appear in this city, and a great game is looked forward to. The Colts are one game ahead on the season's series so far and as Paris has the best of the series with every club in the league with the exception of Lexington, the Bourbonites will make every effort to come out the best in the three games that remain to be played between the two clubs.

Since it became impossible for another club to overtake Paris in the race for the pennant, there has been a very noticeable falling off in the attendance. It is the members of the club, who have worked so hard and faithfully to land the rag for Paris, to have the support of the local fans in the few games that remain to be played.

Sunday afternoon the Hustlers will furnish the entertainment at White Park. Monday is an off day. The Colts and Bourbonites will line up for a double-header Tuesday afternoon, which will be the closing chapter in league base ball this season.

Synonymous with Good Breeding.

A woman of good breeding never neglects her hands. If she is wise she will make frequent visits to some competent manicurist. The hands, the finger nails speak eloquently for or against one's character. Well cared for, properly manicured finger nails make you immune from criticism. Do not risk going into a drawing room, theatre, hotel, or any public place without having your nails manicured. This branch of our business receives special attention. We know the art of manicuring to a "T."

Sun Bros.' Circus at Lexington.

Whoop La! The merry circus is coming and memories of childhood days will again be revived when the great society circus to be given by the Lexington Elks takes place on Tuesday afternoon and night, September 20, on the show grounds in Lexington.

It is estimated to make of this event one of the greatest entertainments projected in a long time. It will be an elaborate affair throughout. The famous Sun Brothers' Circus has been engaged to furnish the main attractions, and which will be augmented with many local performers. The Elks take part in the big circus program, and they are arranging many original stunts and burlesque pieces. The Elks' parade, in which Paris Elks are expected to participate, will be one of the most amusing features of the big event. You've got to see it to appreciate it.

A more glorious victory cannot be gained over another man than this: that when the injury began on his part, the kindness should begin on ours.
